

2011 Prize Winners Best Poster and Oral Presentation

The Competition, sponsored by Queensland University of Technology was a great success, with 29 entries, and the winners announced at the closing of the conference and presented with a plaque and a cash award ($100 for best poster and $250 for best presentation).

Adella Campbell of Victoria University in Wellington won the award for the best poster. Her poster was entitled The Abolition of User Fees in the Jamaican Public Health System: Impact on Users' Access to Health Care Services.

Adella Campbell - Best Poster Prize

The award for the best oral presentation went to Nicole Prattt of the Quality Use of Medicines and Pharmacy Research Centre at the University of South Australia. Her presentation was entitled The Asian Pharmacoepidemiology Network (AsPEN): Promoting Pharmacoepidemiologic Research in the Asia-Pacific Region.

Nicole Pratt - Best Oral Paper Prize

A number of very high quality oral presentations received highly commended awards. These were given to:

Jenni Illomaki of the Quality Use of Medicines and Pharmacy Research Centre at the University of South Australia for her paper on Alcohol Consumption and risk of Myocardial Infarction Among Men: An Application of a Marginal Structural Model

Julie Walters – Barriers to Delivery of Total Hip and Total Knee Replacement Surgery in Public Hospitals

Julie Walters - Highly Commended Oral Paper

Michelle Newton – Exploring Burnout Among Midwives in Caseload and Standard Models of Care

Michelle Newton - Highly Commended Oral Paper

Jean Spinks – Implications of Complementary and Alternative Medicine Regulation on Consumer Choice and Health Care Utilisation