

2013 Prize Winners ERGO Best Poster and Oral Presentation Prize Winners

The posters and oral presentations were self-nominated and judged by experienced researchers based on presentation, content, contribution to the project by the emerging researcher and originality.

The prizes which were presented at the Conference closing ceremony were awarded to:

BEST POSTER – Md Mofizul Islam Australian National University, “The patterns of multi-morbidity and comorbidity of chronic diseases among the senior Australians: assessment using a range of approaches”

BEST ORAL PRESENTATION - Virginia L. Russell, University of Northern British Columbia, Canada “Her/Stories: Using Arts- and Community-Based Approaches to Better Understand the Intimate Healthcare Needs of At-Risk Women in Northern British Columbia”

Thank you to our ERGO representatives Esther Willing and Katherine Harding who were kept busy throughout the conference overseeing the judging of the prizes.
