

Authors' Biographies

Suzanne Robinson, Ph.D

Associate Professor and Director of Health Policy Management

Curtin University

Western Australia

Email: Suzanne.robinson@curtin.edu.au

Web: <http://curtin.edu.au>

Associate Professor Suzanne Robinson is Director of Health Policy Management at Curtin University and an Honorary Senior Research Fellow at the University of Birmingham, UK. Suzanne has been involved in leading health systems and health economics research projects that have had major impact on government reform initiative. Suzanne is a leading expert on commissioning – she has been involved in research, policy and delivery of commissioning in the UK and internationally. She is currently working with Australian commissioners in the development of commissioning. Suzanne is co-editor of the Journal of Health Organization and Management. To read more about this publication visit <http://www.emeraldinsight.com/products/journals/journals.htm?id=jhom>

Craig Mitton, PhD

Senior Scientist and Associate Professor

Centre for Clinical Epidemiology and Evaluation and

School of Population and Public Health, University of

British Columbia, Canada

Craig Mitton is a Senior Scientist at the Centre for Clinical Epidemiology and Evaluation and an Associate Professor in the School of Population and Public Health in the Faculty of Medicine at the University of British Columbia. Craig has held various senior personnel awards over the last decade. The focus of his research is in the application of health economics to impact real-world decision making in health organizations. He has published a book entitled the 'Priority setting toolkit: a guide to the use of economics in health care decision-making' and has authored over 90 peer reviewed publications. <http://spph.ubc.ca/person/craig-mitton>

Iestyn Williams, PhD

Lecturer
Health Services Management Centre
University of Birmingham
Email: i.p.williams@bham.ac.uk

Iestyn's academic background is in Sociology which he studied at undergraduate and postgraduate level. Before joining the University of Birmingham, Iestyn was a health care manager and prior to this worked in research and service development in the non-profit sector. At the Health Services Management Centre, Iestyn leads the department's work on priority setting and health technology coverage decision-making which includes research, teaching, policy advice and a recent book. Current research projects include a three-year study of decommissioning in the English National Health Service.

Prof. Helen Dickinson

Associate Professor Public Governance, Melbourne
School of Government and School of Social and
Political Sciences | Room 214 Walter Boas Building |
Faculty of Arts | The University of Melbourne | Australia
Email: Helen.dickinson@unimelb.edu.au
Twitter: Dr H Dickinson
<https://helendickinson.wordpress.com/>

Helen Dickinson is Associate Professor of Public Governance at the School of Social and Political Sciences, University of Melbourne. Her expertise is in public services, particularly in relation to topics such as governance, commissioning and priority setting and decision making. Helen has authored, co-authored or edited twelve books on these topics in the last five years and has also published in journals such as Public Administration, Public Management Review, Social Science and Medicine and Evidence and Policy. Helen is co-editor of the Journal of Health, Organization and Management and Australian Journal of Public Administration. Helen has worked with a range of different levels of government, community organisations and private organisations in Australia, UK, New Zealand and Europe on research and consultancy programmes.